

PRESS RELEASE

Liability Solutions is delighted to announce that Nicola Ralston is joining the firm as a director, with a view to enhancing Liability Solutions' capabilities in research and advisory services relating to fund of hedge fund selection and M&A.

Nicola Ralston was most recently Head of Global Investment Consulting at Hewitt. She has thirty years' investment experience, including over twenty years at Schroders, where she became Head of Investment Management. She has served on the board of a number of hedge funds. Nicola is currently a director of the Edinburgh Investment Trust and a Governor of CFA Institute.

Liability Solutions has a team of 20 experienced professionals dedicated to the hedge fund industry. The firm's two principal activities are raising institutional capital for hedge funds and consultancy services, primarily within the fund of hedge funds market.

Liability Solutions' fund raising activity involves the distribution of a broad spread of single manager hedge funds. To date the firm has raised capital for over 25 hedge funds.

The company offers investment advice on the selection and assessment of fund of hedge funds, as well as M&A advice across the hedge fund industry. Since 2002, Liability Solutions has advised on over $6 billion of investments.

Liability Solutions was established in 1999 and has offices in London (FSA regulated) and New York (NASD member).
